FAIRY DANCERS

Opera House Crowded Saturday Night.

Many Flowers and Much Applause For Mrs. Gunn's Dainty Little Pupils.

All Honolulu attended the exhibition given by the children of Mrs. Gunn's dancing class at the Hawaiian Opera House on Saturday evening. It is an annual event that draws such crowds as the big auditorium seldom holds, for the little ones own friends by the thousands, and everyone is anxious to see them in this the last exhibition of each year.

Saturday evening's display was one of the best that they have ever given. Society was out in force, and standing room was at a premium when the entertainment began. The dainty costumes of the little people and their pretty and graceful dancing drew storms of applause and flowers were thrown them by the bushes until they were all wreathed in leis and crowned with diamonds of posies.

One of the prettiest features of the evening was a Highland fling by eight little girls dressed in the tartan and plaid of the Scottish clans. The "Lovers' Quarrel," given by Francis Brown and Beatrice Campbell, was very cleverly done and won the two little actors much applause. A scarf dance by Edna Krouse and a mazurka by Daisy Colburn were both charmingly executed, while the Parisian Fantasia by Lydia Wagner was another notable feature.

The cake walk, led by Edean Winter, caused much fun and tickled the audience almost more than any other number on the program.

The Amateur Orchestra, led by Wray Taylor, furnished the incidental music, all of which was most excellently rendered. Following is the program in full:

DISPUTED QUESTION OF DOUBLE TAXES

Honolulu Stockbrokers Up in Arms Against System Now Instituted.

Brokers and others who deal extensively in stocks are somewhat wrought up over the question of the tax on the transfer of certificates of stock under the Territorial law.

Under the war revenue act of the United States buyers of stocks must pay a tax of two cents per $100 of valuation of each transfer of stock. The law of the Hawaiian Republic exacted 20 cents per $100 of valuation and as matters now stand the buyers and sellers are forced to pay both taxes. Naturally the two taxes mount up pretty heavily and there has been much kicking by the brokers and others.

At a meeting of the Honolulu Stock Exchange on Saturday it was decided to take the matter into the courts to get a decision on the question, and it was decided to retain Attorney A. G. M. Robertson to look into it and if necessary begin the legal steps. A test case will probably be begun immediately.

Attorney-General Dole when appealed to for a decision stated that in his opinion the Hawaiian tax was still in force, and Treasurer Cooper refuses to give any opinion on the matter.

To get the matter into court a transfer of Ewa stock will in all probability be made, and a demand will be made upon Castle & Cooke to transfer the stock. A refusal will undoubtedly be met with for the firm declines to make any transfers until the question is definitely settled, and the courts will then be called upon to give a final decision in the matter.

Arranging New Rooms.

It is expected that the rooms of the Young Women's Christian Association will soon be ready for the reception of members and their friends. The secretary is now busy putting the finishing touches to the office and parlors and when these are in shape the members will be permitted to eat their lunches in the rooms. A social is to be given at the home of Mrs. J. B. Atherton by the Association on Tuesday evening.
